

Name: _____

Mr. Stone © 2009

Once Upon a Romance Crossword!

Across

- 1 His advice can be summed up in one word, and he thinks ten fingers is all you should use to count your possessions. (8)
- 3 Abnormally deficient in color, suggests physical or emotional distress. (6)
- 5 The Pequod is what kind of ship? (6)
- 6 Break apart or in two, using violence (6)
- 9 The first name of the whale that torments the Pequod's captain. (4)
- 12 cement or adhesive used in stonework (6)
- 14 "Resistance to Civil Government" was

- written after a reflective night in _____. (4)
- 16 Inspired in part by Thoreau, this leader spent many nights in jail for his cause. (4)
- 18 A showy growth of feathers or skin on the head of a bird or other animal (5)
- 20 This man fears the captain has made an evil choice in his desire to destroy the white whale. (8)
- 21 Inspired partly by Thoreau's essay, this champion of "passive resistance" began his career resisting oppression in South Africa. (6)
- 23 His dark tale of evil centered on a man obsessed by a white whale. (8)
- 25 This night visitor remained, "never flitting, still is sitting . . ." (5)
- 27 Ahab throws this overboard, asserting he will no longer indulge in any pleasure until his white nemesis be dead. (4)
- 28 Romanticists idealized aboriginal people as natural men, as "_____ savages." (5)
- 29 This navigation device helps a mariner determine longitude and latitude. No wonder Starbuck is dismayed when Captain Ahab destroys it. (7)
- 30 Fortunato and Montresor are both _____ connoisseurs. (4)
- 31 The _____ environment in the Romantic era was bleak with tenements, poor immigrants, and growing industrialization, pollution, corruption, and disease. (5)
- 33 Who swings censurs which suggest sleepiness? (8)
- 34 Poe argues in his "Philosophy of Composition" everything in a poem or short story should contribute to an "_____ of effect." (5)
- 36 Many of Poe's works include _____ elements, that help create a mood of gloom and mystery and the grotesque. (6)
- 37 An officer of the church who is in charge of sacred objects. (6)
- 38 Despite changing the spelling of his name, he never quite escaped the influence of his Salem ancestors. (9)
- 40 appease, make peace with, ingratiate (10)
- 41 This is how they showed they appreciated the lecture in the lecture room. (8)
- 43 A healing ointment, as in "_____ of Gilead." (4)
- 44 Hawthorne didn't have a very good time at this supposedly utopian farm. (5)
- 45 For Dickinson, this is what broke in "Reason" and sent her falling before she finished "knowing." (5)
- 47 a.k.a. the "night's plutonian shore" (4)
- 48 Literary technique: "While I nodded, nearly napping," and "From my books surcease of sorrow — sorrow for the lost Lenore" (12)
- 49 Adjective used to describe a birdy friend that means "shockingly repellent; inspiring horror." (4)
- 50 Captain of the Pequod. (4)
- 51 The evils of guilt, isolation and _____ were the real sins of Hawthorne's most famous novel. (9)
- 52 This long "Song of _____" broke all the rules. (6)
- 53 Whereas deists like Franklin and Jefferson aspired to reason, the dark romantics rebelled and embraced the mysterious and _____. (10)
- 54 member of a secret fraternal order pledged to mutual assistance and brotherly love (5)
- 57 Emerson experienced spiritual moments while in nature that made him a believer in an _____. (8)
- 60 When meteorologists predict a 100% chance of this, you can bet that it will start some conflicts on the highways. (13)
- 65 This hour is often the time she uses to describe her time with the lover. (4)

- 66 Any system of philosophy emphasizing the intuitive and spiritual above the empirical and material (17)
- 68 "About the year 1727, just at the time when earthquakes were prevalent . . . and shook many tall _____ down upon their knees" (7)
- 72 The narrator of the "Tell-Tale Heart" found this pale-blue _____ evil. (3)
- 75 She described her pain as gradual and terrifying, like a "_____ with a notch." (9)
- 76 This fellow is shackled and has a "staple in the _____." (4)
- 78 Fortunato forgets this family's "arms," quite possibly another insult. (9)
- 79 Whitman's poem in celebration of American workers catalogues their _____. (6)
- 80 Though a gifted lecturer, this "learn'd _____" was found lacking by the poem's narrator. (8)
- 81 a mythological drug causing forgetfulness of grief (8)
- 82 Medbourne's sin. (5)
- 83 "I cannot live with you— / It would be _____" (4)

Down

- 1 Tom showed no alarm when he accidentally uncovers a human _____. (5)
- 2 He believed that a story should be short enough to read in one sitting. (3)
- 4 "This I whispered, and an echo murmured back the word, " _____!" (6)
- 5 Irving's first name. (10)
- 7 Though titled "Resistance to Civil Government," this essay is usually referred to as "Civil _____." (12)
- 8 Argggh, shipmate, if yee aim to please the captain, sing out from the masthead, "Thar

she _____," (5)

- 10 This poet frequently wrote in _____ stanza, but employed the form irregularly with a lyric purpose more often than a narrative one. (6)
- 11 Another word for "volume" as in "quaint and curious volume of forgotten lore." (4)
- 13 Despite his own rules, he runs a risk when he shows Fortunato a _____. (6)
- 15 Today's poets and biographers reject the notion that she was fey, or slightly insane, but rather see her as someone who looked very deep and very far. (9)
- 17 This terror comes to "sip" during a "bandaged moment." (6)
- 19 A scolding nag or bad-tempered woman (9)
- 21 Repellent, inspiring horror, gruesomely indicative of death or the dead (7)
- 22 The devil's _____ footprint is an allusion to Lucifer's background—the Greek deity of nature, Pan. (6)
- 23 According to Emerson, there were only two parties: the establishment and the _____. (8)
- 24 Her _____ is boundless. She greets her reflection like a long lost friend. (6)
- 26 Romanticists like Irving, Poe, & Hawthorne describe _____ unrealistically in order to create a picture of their character's moral status. (6)
- 30 He sang his self and discovered free verse. (7)
- 32 The vaults may be extensive, but don't search for a cask of _____. (11)
- 33 Also known as the "Fireside Poets," Longfellow, Bryant, Lowell, & Holmes were immensely popular and frequently memorized for recitation. What was their academic nickname? (10)
- 35 This man said "I never found a companion so companionable as solitude" (7)

- 39 stopping, cessation, as in "_____ of sorrow." (8)
- 42 goddess of wisdom and useful arts and prudent warfare — first name only! (6)
- 44 A brass instrument without valves; used for military calls and fanfares (5)
- 46 Bryant's meditation upon death. (11)
- 48 To their credit, most Romantics championed humanitarian reform. Emerson, Longfellow, Bryant, Irving, & Thoreau were all _____. (13)
- 53 Of or consisting of iambs, a verse consisting of iambs (6)
- 55 When Emerson urged people to "Trust thyself" he was arguing for self-_____. (8)
- 56 The narrator of the "Tell-Tale Heart" is especially proud of the way he dismembers and hides the _____. (6)
- 58 Poe knew his audience would enjoy stories of murder and _____ because he believed we were all fascinated with our own dark passions. (7)
- 59 When Tom refuses to engage in the "black traffic," the woodsman suggests he become an _____. (6)
- 61 Dragons live in the creases of Emily's _____. (4)
- 62 An underground tunnel with recesses where bodies were buried (as in ancient Rome) (9)
- 63 Poe said his Raven was "emblematic [symbolic] of mournful and never ending _____." (12)
- 64 He's to be found between Ralph and Emerson. (5)
- 67 If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different _____. (7)
- 69 It would have been scarier if he'd said his name was "Bob," but instead he croaked "_____." (9)
- 70 A (temporary) relief from harm or discomfort (7)
- 71 unplanned eclipses imply his watch is off (7)
- 73 Time long past. (4)
- 74 Though his poem's are no longer a mandatory recitation assignment, he and "Hiawatha" had quite a run as the nation's most esteemed poet. (10)
- 77 "Tell me what thy lordly _____ is on the night's plutonian shore." (4)
- 84 Rate of monthly interest Tom Walker charges. (4)